

SANG KEE

peking duck house

OUR STORY

Established in 1980 as Philadelphia's first Peking Duck restaurant, Sang Kee Peking Duck House began as a tiny 20-seat eatery. Thank you for making Sang Kee part of your family tradition and one of Philadelphia's favorite restaurants for 40+ years.

PEKING DUCK LEGEND

Ancient Tradition

Peking duck is a culinary masterpiece with roots in the imperial kitchens of the Ming Dynasty over 600 years ago. It was a favorite dish among emperors and has become a symbol of Chinese cuisine all over the world.

A Culinary Experience

Each order of Peking Duck includes mooshu skin pancakes or lotus leaf buns, fresh scallions, and a sweet hoisin sauce. To enjoy, spread a thin layer of hoisin sauce on a pancake or bun, add slices of duck, and top with scallions. Enjoy!

Artistry in Preparation

Our Peking duck is prepared with traditional methods to ensure an authentic experience. We first select the finest Long Island ducks, season them with 5 spice, and air-dry for optimal crispiness. We then roast them in a custom-built oven at 400 degrees to create a delicate balance of tender meat and crispy skin.
